

Wisconsin's no-call list should not be weakened.
Rather, the federal no-call list should be strengthened to match Wisconsin's law. My privacy is being violated anytime I get a phone call that I don't wish to receive. My privacy is more important than any businesses right to call and annoy me.